Vision

By collaborating with others, we create partnerships that educate, encourage, and empower survivors to heal, thus creating a new normal.

I WONDERED WHY
SOMEBODY DIDN'T
DO SOMETHING.
THEN I REALIZED,
I AM
SOMEBODY.

A 501c3 Non-Profit Organization

History

Dr. Lakeisha S. McGee was diagnosed with Stage 2 Grade 7 HER2+ ER+PR+ Breast Cancer on Nov 7, 2018. As you can imagine her life was never the same.

While still in treatment, she began traveling to speak, sharing her story and spreading breast cancer awareness. She wanted to make others aware of what Cancer and chemo does, but most importantly about getting tested for early detection.

If resources can be provided to assist during the most difficult seasons of healing, it would allow survivors more time to heal stress free. That feeling of vulnerability and the desire to be more secure is what birthed HealHer2 Foundation.
